Emergency Funding: The bill provides $160 million in Fiscal Year 2000 emergency spending for disaster assistance to Southern Africa.

LEGISLATIVE HIGHLIGHTS:

FAMILY PLANNING & MEXICO CITY POLICY — The bill contains the Mexico City language which was signed into law last year. The bill provides $385 million, the same as last year for population control and provides $25 million, the same as last year for UNFPA.

TIAHRT VOLUNTARY FAMILY PLANNING LANGUAGE — The bill retains the Tiahrt language ensuring that all family planning service are voluntary in nature.

KYOTO PROTOCOL — The bill contains language prohibiting funds in the bill from being used to implement the Kyoto Protocol on Global Warming.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS IN NORTH KOREA — The bill conditions the $35 million for heavy fuel oil in North Korea on certification that North Korea is complying with its denuclearization agreements.

EARLY DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS TO ISRAEL — The bill requires that funds for Israel be disbursed within 30 days after the bill takes effect. No such early disbursement policy is provided for Egypt or Jordan.

ISRAEL'S MILITARY ASSISTANCE FOR CHINA — Expresses the Sense of Congress that we are concerned about reports that Israel is planning to transfer airborne radar systems to China.
